a Thanksgiving turkey.Mr. Jos. Johnston received a letter, dated at Tucson, Nov. 12, from Johnnie Hill, from which the following extract is taken: "You will probably be surprised to hear from me at this place, but it is not my fault that I am here. I was braking on a work train on the Nacosari but on Tuesday night it was raining and about half of the Mexicans made their beds underneath the flat cars, so when we shoved up in the morning we killed six. That was about 5 a. m. so just as quick as the crew saw what they had done they all "hiked," so I had to "hike" too, and leave everything I had; but I did take time to put on my best clothes as I had my trunk in the car. We walked just 85 miles to Nogales and I will take oath it was 500 any how." The letter states also that the boys expect to lose their wages but that they were glad to escape with their lives. Railroading in Mexico is just what it is said to be.Sunday Meetings.At the Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow morning the pastor will preach on the subject of "Child Training." In the evening Dr. S. A. Thomson, superintendent, of the Arizona mission, will preach and administer the Lord's supper.
The time for the preaching services is 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. At the Sunday school, 10 a. m., the subject for lesson study will be "The Childhood of Moses." Everyone is cordially invited to all these services.

Keeping It Up.It is remarkable how the magazine part of the Los Angeles Sunday Herald keeps up to the high standard set for it from the start.
Every week it is filled with matter that is of absorbing interest, much of which is calculated to appeal directly to Southern California and Arizona readers.Mr. J. S. Button and two sons left
